

2018 Proposed United States Forum Operational Guidelines

The chair of the 2016-2018 US Forum Steering Committee, Carmela DeMarco, appointed an ad hoc committee to revise the 2011 US Forum Operational Guidelines. The following pages are the 2018 proposed United States Forum Operational Guidelines. The Committee appreciates your help in distributing this document to United States members.

All United States DKG members attending the 2018 International Convention are eligible to vote on the proposed Operational Guidelines at the Forum. The Forum will be held from 2:00 to 4:00 PM on Friday, July 20, at the J.W. Marriott Hotel in Austin, Texas. Amendments will be considered during deliberation of the proposed guidelines during the Forum.

Please send any questions and comments to usforumguidelines@gmail.com.

1. Use granted time to inform attendees of the election process for the US Forum Steering Committee.
 2. Confirm that the election process is on the US Forum agenda.
 3. Provide Candidate Registration Forms for all potential candidates. (Appendix F, Candidate Registration Form, page 23)
 4. Be prepared to answer any question related to the election process.
 5. Reference the US Forum website as a source for detailed and up-to- date information concerning the election process.
- c. Prior to the international convention, the Elections Committee shall do the following:
1. Plan and implement a series of “information highlights” to US Forum members of their rights and obligations during the election process.
 2. Use the following information to inform members of the US Forum election process.
 - a. Each member of the US Forum has an equal opportunity to be nominated for an elected position on the Steering Committee.
 - b. A member does not have to be present to be a candidate for an elected position.
 - c. A candidate can apply for both chair and regional representative, although she may serve in only one position if elected. Any candidate elected to more than one position must state the position she accepts.
 - d. All members attending the US Forum during the international convention may vote in elections. Voting is by ballot for the five elected positions. There shall be no proxy voting. During the Forum, members may be nominated from the floor.*
 - e. The candidate for each position receiving a majority (more than 50%) of the validated votes for that position is elected.

 If the bylaws require the election of officers to be by ballot and there is only one candidate for an office, the ballot must, nevertheless, be taken unless the bylaws provide for an exception in such a case. (Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised, page 441, lines 25-28)

*If there is more than one candidate for any position: Each candidate will be allowed to have a representative observe the process of counting the ballots for that position. If no one receives a majority, then a runoff election will occur. When repeated balloting for an office is necessary, individuals are never removed from candidacy on the next ballot unless they voluntarily withdraw. (Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised, page 441, lines 5-8)

3. Receive completed Candidate Registration Forms from the US Forum Chair.
 - a. Use the member number of each candidate to verify current membership status.
 - b. Prepare a list of eligible candidates with their pictures and a paragraph about each to include in the US Forum handouts, being consistent in the length of paragraphs. Post on the US Forum website as soon after deadline as possible.
 - c. Include related voting procedures in pre-convention publicity.
 - d. Organize, delineate procedures, and make assignments needed to conduct an efficient and orderly election.
 - e. Request appropriate room setup for the following:
 1. The room in which the election will be held
 2. Designated seating by region, clearly identified by posted signage
 3. A quiet, closed area with three tables and at least eight chairs for tabulating votes
 - f. Prepare signage to enable Forum participants to receive appropriate materials, locate proper seating, and instantly identify the person who will collect their votes and answer any questions concerning voting.
 - g. Create and print all ballots and election forms:
 1. The election procedures (Appendix G, Election Procedures, page 24)
 2. The four (4) ballots needed for the election, color-coded by region, with instructions to vote for one candidate for each position.(Appendix G-1, G-2, G-3, G-4, pages 25-26)
 3. The four (4) tally sheets (Appendix G-5, G-6, G-7, G-8, pages 27-28)
 4. Report of the (Year) Elections (Appendix H, page 29)
 5. The printing for each elected position should be distinctive, readable, and easily recognizable.
 6. The candidates for Chair will appear on each ballot.
- d. At the international convention before the scheduled US Forum, the Elections Committee Chair shall do the following:
 1. Arrange to pick up all materials needed for the election as instructed by the US Forum Chair.
 2. Request from the US Forum Chair the names of two members selected from the US Forum membership who will assist in validating the vote count. The selected members shall not be from the same region as the candidate.
 3. Assign each committee member to a region different from her own.
 4. Supply each committee member with signage and sufficient ballots for her assigned region. A committee member shall not distribute or collect the ballots, nor count or verify the vote count for her own region.
 5. Check that the room and signage is set up for seating by region.
- e. During the election process at the Forum, the Elections Committee members shall do the following:

1. Direct attendees to their regional seating. The US Forum Chair may assign ushers to welcome and direct US Forum participants to appropriate seating.
2. Distribute the ballots during a time before additional candidates are nominated from the floor.
3. Direct attendees to add the names of nominees from the floor to their ballots.
4. Collect the ballots and retire to the designated area to complete the count.

f. During the process for tallying votes, the Elections Committee shall do the following:

1. Follow the committee's plan for counting and recording the votes from each region.
2. Tally those ballots that are clearly marked and review questionable ballots. Ballots judged to be illegible will not be tallied.
3. Keep all ballots until all five positions have been accepted.

g. After tallying votes, the Elections Committee Chair shall do the following:

1. Completes the Report of the Elections. (Appendix H, Report of the Elections ,page 29)
2. Notifies the presiding chair that the Elections Report is ready.
3. When introduced, gives a copy of the report to the presiding Chair and then reads the committee chair's portion of the report. The presiding Chair follows by reading her portion of the report. (Appendix I, Script to Finalize the Election of the (Year) Steering Committee, page 32) The Election Report shall be recorded in the minutes of the US Forum.
4. Prepares a motion to destroy the ballots.

h. Following the US Forum election at the international convention at which an election is final, the Elections Committee Chair shall do the following:

1. Verifies that the ballots are safely destroyed.
2. Writes a summary of the Elections Committee work during her biennium, including an assessment of the committee's activities.
3. Makes recommendations for the next election.
4. Places the Election Report in the Elections Committee file maintained by the Elections Committee Chair before passing it on to the next Elections Committee Chair.

Section B. Finance Committee

1. The Finance Committee is composed of two elected members of the Steering Committee, appointed by the Chair with the approval of the Steering Committee, the treasurer, ex officio without vote, and the Chair, ex officio with vote.

APPENDIX F: Election Procedures

The four members of the Elections Committee (one member representing each of the four regions) distribute the ballots, collect the ballots, count the votes, verify the count, and sign the committee’s election report. However, no member of the committee shall tally or validate the votes of her region.

1. The US Forum Chair will appoint four members present at the Forum to assist with validating the count.
2. Every step of each procedure used by the committee should be carefully planned and understood by all involved.
3. The election results must be accurate and completed in a defined time period.
4. The Elections Report must be given in time for a runoff election if needed before the Forum is adjourned.
5. The Elections Committee identifies and assigns tasks to complete;
6. They ask and answer every question they can think of that relates to completing the various tasks.

Examples:

- a. Who will distribute and collect the ballots for each region? A committee member cannot be assigned to her own region.
- b. What is needed to expedite the counting of the votes? (space, furniture, equipment, forms, materials, and others)
- c. Who are the teams of two assigned to count the votes for each region?
- d. Who are the teams of two to validate each count? Original counters cannot validate the original count.
- e. Are there documents that must be printed in advance? What are they? Assign responsibility to ensure that these documents are available at the time they are needed.

Suggested assignments:

	The committee members from designated regions who will perform each of the three tasks.			Complete the Election Report and announce the election results.
	Task #1 Distribute and collect ballots.	Task #2 Complete the 1 st count.	Task #3 Complete the 2 nd count, the validation.
Northeast	Southeast	Northwest + Southeast	SW + Appointed member #1
Northwest	Southwest	Southwest + Northeast	SE + Appointed member #2
Southeast	Northeast	Northeast + Southwest	NW + Appointed member #3
Southwest	Northwest	Southeast + Northwest	NE + Appointed member #4

Suggested Tally Report Forms* Record the result of the vote count for each region on a separate form, signed by the counters, and passed to the validation group. After validation, pass the form to the Elections Committee Chair. The Committee Chair may seek additional assistance while compiling the elections report. See sample tally forms on pages 27 and page 28.
